

The Ten Commandments for Happy Dancing

- I Thou shalt keep thy sense of humor.
- II Thou Shalt make thy partner look good.
- III Thou Shalt move in a counter clockwise direction around the outer edge of the dance floor when dancing a progressive dance.
- IV Thou shalt not interfere with another line dance or partner dance.
- V Thou shalt not smoke on the dance floor.
- VI Thou shalt not drink on the dance floor.
- VII Thou shalt not stand on the dance floor to talk.
- VIII Thou shalt always leave a two foot strip around the outside edge of the dance floor for faster moving dancers.
- IX Thou Shalt avoid collisions on the dance floor.
- X Thou shalt apologize for collisions on the dance floor...even if they are not thy fault.

SOUTHERN COUNTRY
SOUTH FLORIDA
HISTORY

Southern Country South Florida was established in October 1991 for the promotion of Country-Western activities within the Gay and Lesbian community.

Southern Country South Florida was the brainchild of the original Board of Directors:

Jerri Goldberg
Rebecca Heyman
Vinny DeMartino
Adria Martino
Kyle Neeley

Since it's beginning, SoCoSoFo has grown from a handful of dedicated Country-Western fans to a full functioning social club complete with a Board of Directors, social committees, Country-Western dance instruction, a newsletter, and hundreds of local members from Miami to West Palm Beach.

Come be apart of our history and support a great American past time. Join the rest of the Gay and Lesbian Country-Western fans in South Florida.

Southern Country South Florida operates under the State of Florida Statues for Nonprofit Social Clubs.
